Scriptures for Sunday, September 27: Proverbs 2:1-5

But we will give ourselves continually to Prayer
and to the ministry of the word. Acts 6:4

- Each of us as we think about who we want to be in our close relationships, family or marriage.
- Sena Osborne as she continues to slowly heal from the injury sustained in a fall on August 20. She returned home on September 11 from Schowalter Villa's Progressive Recovery Academy.
- Praises to God for a good re-opening to in-person worship! And thanksgivings for meaningful evening services outside as well.
- Wisdom and strength to meet day-to-day living with grace, courage and joy.
- Parents, school children, teachers, and administrators of our schools as they carry on the school business in light of COVID-19 challenges.
- Hesston College students and staff for continued health, safety, focus, unity, and perseverance.
- Comfort and healing for persons who are experiencing physical, emotional, or relational challenges.
- Hesston Mennonite Church's participation and response to South Central Conference's Discovery 20.21 process. That we may focus on what we need to do as a congregation as well as honoring South, Central Conference's process.
- Those experiencing the effects of hurricanes in the last few months and this past week.
- Rain for areas where wildfires continue to rage. God's provision for those who have been impacted.
